THE SCHEME OF THE TRAINING PROGRAMME

1.1. Name of the Scheme:

Providing training on 'Entrepreneurship and Marketing Chain Development through Market-led Production and Post-harvest Management' among Young Members of the Farm Families.

1.2. Introduction:

Netaji Subhas Training Institute of Agricultural Marketing, the training institute of West Bengal State Agricultural Marketing Board under Department of Agricultural Marketing, Govt. of West Bengal intends to undertake one fully residential skill development training programme exclusively for the young members of the Small and Marginal Farm Families with special thrust upon the SC and ST communities of different districts of West Bengal for ensuring them better livelihood opportunities by means of imparting training in a planned manner for boosting their employability by way of making a techno-economically viable rural based agro-farming with special emphasis on organic principles and related food processing for retaining ecological balance to make the weaker section of the people for its adoption as a means of either direct employment or involvement for monetarily rewarding through entrepreneurship development. Furthermore, the training programme shall provide stipend to each trainees @ Rs. 1000/-per month with a view to minimize the financial hardship the families of these trainees may have to face. Each of the groups (which shall be formed by the Training Provider after completion of the training program) shall receive Rs 2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh only) as a front end subsidy in their Group account, upon submission of a bankable project duly approved by the Bank.

1.3 Broad Objective:

The broad objective of this residential programme is to train the young members of the Small and Marginal Farm Families of rural Bengal by introducing them with Market-driven production mechanisms with special emphasis to integrated bio-diversified farming methodology along with new technologies and post-harvest management of the commodities related to agricultural and/or allied sectors. This will provide them an assured option of monetarily rewarding engagement in the form of direct employment or as producers of agricultural and/or allied sector commodities for direct selling or by processing through establishment of marketing chain for the grown and/or processed products through formation of groups.

1.3.1 Specific objectives:

- ✓ To equip the trainees with Market-driven production mechanisms.
- ✓ To provide knowledge on post-harvest management and value addition of the farm produce.
- ✓ To enhance their knowledge on application of computer and ICT instruments in fields of agriculture and agricultural marketing.
- ✓ To impart training on different techniques of scientific organic farming so that at the end of the training period, the trainee is well equipped in the wide range of multi-tasking that is essential for bio-diverse agricultural practices.
- ✓ To develop young dynamic youth as entrepreneur who can be linked to different market intervention programs conducted by Department of Agricultural Marketing.
- ✓ To impart high level practical training supported by field-based activities through effective linkages.
- ✓ To impart skills to promote and upscale agribusiness models through formation of Groups and development of different Business Development Models.
- ✓ To generate additional rural employment by engaging rural people from BPL and other minority community.

- ✓ To encourage environment-friendly practices and to change their mindset towards market-oriented production and increase quality and volume of their produce.

1.4 Project Target Group:

The Training will be focusing on selected group of boys and girls, with a minimum educational qualification of Class VIII pass, drawn from:

- i. Economically and socially backward rural/farm families residing in the selected districts.
- ii. Farm Families with marginal land holdings
- iii. Landless families living on irregular wage earning, having basic idea of cultivation with minimum resources to follow it.
- iv. Members from SC/ST and minority groups.

West Bengal State Agricultural Marketing Board, in consultation with the District Magistrates of the selected districts, as the Government may think fit for, will be the final authority for selection of the candidates for the training program however; the Training Provider may be required to facilitate the selection procedure.

- a. Theory classes: Duration is of 30 days. Total 120 classes of 1 hour and 30 minutes each is proposed to be conducted in the theory part, which mainly cover the following broad areas:
 - Market led production - demand driven commodity mapping including organic methodology
 - Post-Harvest Management
 - Value addition
 - Modern marketing methods
 - Preparation of Business Development Plan (BDP)

- Computer management and its application in agriculture and agricultural marketing

The theory classes for a week shall be concluded with weekly exam (MCQ based).

b. Practical /field orientation classes: Duration is of 30 days. During this time, the trainees may visit several fields related to agriculture and agricultural marketing for conducting practical oriented activities related to the field of Agricultural Marketing. The practical orientation at may be done in the own farm of the training provider or in association with other farms in consultation with NSTIAM. The practical classes for a week shall be concluded with weekly exam (MCQ based).

c. Application classes: Duration is of 30 days. During this time, the trainees will visit to their own villages where they will try to apply and implement the learning from theory and practical classes in their own field condition. A close monitoring of the activities of the trainees needs to be done by the Training Provider during this period, preferably by deploying one representative of their organization at that place. Learning from their field operations may be the discussion topic once they are back for the theory and practical classes at the Institute.

Each batch will be provided training based on the above mentioned 3 fields for a duration of one week each, i.e. after one week's theoretical classes, they will move for practical classes for one week and after that, they will move to their own field for a period of one week for Application classes and once that is over they will again join to the theoretical classes in the next week and will go on this way till the end of the program.

The program of the one phase of six batches will be scheduled in such a way that when two batches will attend theoretical classes, another two will be attending practical classes and next two will continue their application classes at their own block.

The proposed schedule, as given below, for one set of the six batches may be modified on the interest of better training by the TPs in consultation with N.S.T.I.A.M.

Any printed literature furnished by the bidder in another language shall be accompanied by an English translation, in which case, for purposes of interpretation of the bid, the English translation shall govern.

If any supporting documents submitted are in any language other than English, translation of the same in English language is to be duly attested by the bidder.

2.20 Period of Validity of Bids

Bids shall remain valid for a period of 120 days after the bid submission deadline date prescribed by NSTIAM. A bid valid for a shorter period shall be rejected by NSTIAM as non-responsive.

In exceptional circumstances, prior to the expiration of the bid validity period, NSTIAM may request Bidders to extend the period of validity of their Bids. In this case, the EMD submitted by the Training Provider (TP) shall also be extended for thirty days (30) beyond the deadline of the extended validity period. A Bidder may refuse the request without forfeiting its EMD. A Bidder granting the request shall not be required or permitted to modify its bid. No interest will be paid by NSTIAM on amount of EMD. The request and responses shall be made via registered post or speed post of Post & Telegraph Dept. Govt. of India.

If any applicant withdraws his offer before Bid Validity Period, without giving any satisfactory explanation for such withdrawals, his EMD shall be forfeited.

In case of successful applicant, EMD shall be forfeited if he fails to sign the agreement within the specified time limit, as mentioned by NSTIAM.

2.21 Clarification of Bids

To assist in the examination, evaluation, and comparison of the Bids, and qualification of the Bidders, NSTIAM may, at its discretion, ask any Bidder for a clarification of its bid. Any clarification submitted by a Bidder that is not in response to a request by NSTIAM shall not be considered, and NSTIAM's request for clarification and the response shall be via email.

If a Bidder does not provide clarifications of its bid by the date and time set in NSTIAM's request for clarification, its bid shall be rejected and EMD shall be forfeited.

2.22 Terms and Conditions

All terms & conditions mentioned in the tender document, as well as in this agreement, shall be valid throughout the term of this agreement. All the commitments made by the bidder through correspondences for the completion of the tender process as well as during the presentation shall be treated as part of this agreement.

2.23 Documents and the Software prepared by the Applicant to be property of the Authority

2.23.1 All reports, documents, (in softcopies and/or hardcopies) related to the training which includes database, documentation etc. (collectively referred to as “Consultancy Documents”) prepared

14. Fraud and Corruption

NSTIAM requires that applicant agencies must observe the highest standards of ethics during the execution of the contract. In pursuance of this policy, NSTIAM defines, for the purpose of this provision, the terms set forth as follows:

- (i) “Corrupt practice” is the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party;
- (ii) “Fraudulent practice” is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation;
- (iii) “Collusive practice” is an arrangement between two or more parties to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party;
- (iv) “Coercive practice” is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party;
- (v) “Obstructive practice” is
 - i. Deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a NSTIAM investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice; and/or threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation, or from pursuing the investigation, or

- ii. Acts intended to materially impede the exercise of NSTIAM's inspection and audit rights.

If it is noticed, that the Bidder has indulged into Corrupt / Fraudulent / Collusive / Coercive / Obstructive practices,

- a) It will be a sufficient ground for NSTIAM to terminate the contract and initiate black-listing the agency.
- b) It will reject a proposal for award, if it is found that the bidder recommended for award has directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices in competing for the contract; and
- c) It will have the right to require that a provision be included in bidding documents and in contracts financed by NSTIAM, a provision be included requiring bidders, suppliers and contractors to permit NSTIAM to inspect their accounts and records and other documents relating to the bid submission and contract performance and to have them audited by auditors appointed by WBSAMB/NSTIAM.

15. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- i. It will be obligatory for the Training Provider (TP) to disclose any sort of actual or potential conflict of interest, failing which the proposal may be disqualified or the contract may be terminated.
- ii. No staff or agency currently working with the Government shall be engaged by the Training Provider (TP) for this assignment without prior written approval of NSTIAM.
- iii. No person of the Training Provider (TP) (including joint venture partner or sub-consultants) shall have close relationship with the client's staff and shall directly or indirectly involved in Preparation of the TOR, evaluation of proposals and selection of the Training Provider (TP) shall be engaged by the Client.
- iv. The Training Provider (TP) shall not receive any remuneration in connection with the assignment except as provided in the contract.
- v. The Training Provider (TP) shall provide professional, objective and impartial advice and at all times hold the NSTIAM's interest paramount, without any consideration of future work, and that in providing advice, they avoid conflicts with other assignments and their own corporate interest.
- vi. Training Provider (TP) shall not participate in this assignment if this is in conflict with their prior or current obligations to other clients or, that may place them in a position of being carry out the in the best interest of NSTIAM.

16. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All terms & conditions mentioned in this agreement, shall be valid throughout the term of this agreement. All the commitments made by the bidder through correspondences for the completion of the tender process as well as during the presentation shall be treated as part of this agreement.

17. DOCUMENTS AND THE SOFTWARE PREPARED BY THE APPLICANT TO BE PROPERTY OF THE AUTHORITY

- i. All reports, documents, (in softcopies and/or hardcopies) related to the training which includes database, documentation etc. (collectively referred to as “Consultancy Documents”) prepared by the Training Provider (TP) (or by the Sub-Consultants or any Third Party) in performing the Services, shall become and remain the property of the Authority, and all intellectual property rights in such Consultancy Documents shall vest with the Authority. Any Consultancy Document, of which the ownership or the intellectual property rights do not vest with the Authority under law, shall automatically stand assigned to the Authority as and when such Consultancy Document is created and the Training Provider (TP) agrees to execute all papers and to perform such other acts as the Authority may deem necessary to secure its rights herein assigned by the Training Provider (TP).
- ii. The Training Provider (TP) shall, not later than termination or expiration of this Agreement, deliver all Consultancy Documents to the Authority, together with a detailed inventory thereof. The Training Provider (TP) may retain a copy of such Consultancy Documents. The Training Provider (TP), its Sub-Consultants or a Third Party shall not use these Consultancy Documents for purposes unrelated to this Agreement without the prior written approval of the Authority.
- iii. The Training Provider (TP) shall hold the Authority harmless and indemnified for any losses, claims, damages, expenses (including all legal expenses), awards, penalties or injuries (collectively referred to as “Claims”) which may arise from or due to any unauthorised use of such Consultancy Documents, or due to any breach or failure on part of the Training Provider (TP) or its Sub-Consultants or a Third Party to perform any of its duties or obligations in relation to securing the aforementioned rights of the Authority.
- iv. In the event of any confidential information of WBSAMB, NSTIAM or of any of Regulated Market Committee that comes to the knowledge to the Training Provider (TP) in course of their activities, the Training Provider (TP) shall not divulge the information to any 3rd party.

18. MATERIALS FURNISHED BY THE AUTHORITY

Materials made available to the Training Provider (TP) by the Authority shall be the property of the Authority and shall be marked accordingly. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Training Provider (TP) shall furnish forthwith to the Authority, an inventory of such materials and shall dispose of such materials in accordance with the instructions of the Authority.
